Chapter 1 by Tokoroa Central School

Sabriana, a normal teenager and has a normal family. After a Someone giving Sabriana a feeling that left her in shock, things start to smell a bit fishy.

Someone was pounding very loudly behind the door. "Okay, okay I'm coming!" I yelled. Whoever was behind the door wasn't very happy. I pulled the door slowly towards me. I looked up and to my surprise, saw no one. Something was tickling my feet. I giggled and ugly giggle hoping no one heard. I looked down and my dropped. It was a basket, all wrapped beautifully. But what was in it was shocking. It was a black and grey husky." Who's dog is this? And who would do such a thing!" I said furiously "Hey mum. Do you know who done this"

"Done what dear?" mum answered confusingly

"They left a cute baby husky on our door step" Then I heard a squealing noise from the basket. The husky looked very unwell and hungry. "Aw, look mum, its crying!" I looked around outside. I slowly picked up the basket, my grip was not so good. "Huh?" I said with confusion. "Why is it so slippery?" I looked down and studied the clear, slippery slime. "Ewww, Dog drool!"
